

Clark soccer teams sweep, headed to playoffs

Columbian staff, news services

Around the Horn

The Clark College men's soccer team will roll into the NWAACC playoffs on the power of a 9-0 win at Southwestern Oregon on Saturday.

The trip to Coos Bay, Ore., was good for Taj Rockitt, who scored three goals. Borche Atanasov and Jose Avalos each had two goals for the Penguins (11-2-4, 8-1-4 South Division).

As the No. 2 team from the South, Clark will host the No. 3 team from the West Division on Wednesday.

■ The Clark women wrapped up a playoff berth with their 3-0 win over Southwestern Oregon.

Hannah Millhollen, Jovanna Baza and Brittany Wilson scored for the Penguins (6-11, 6-8), who will be the No. 3 team from the South and next play at Highline on Wednesday.