

Clark volleyball team clinches playoffs

The Clark College volleyball team won its home finale at the O'Connell Center on Friday night, clinching a place in the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges championship tournament with a three-game sweep of West Division-leading Tacoma Community College. Scores were 25-13, 25-21, 25-23.

Heritage High School graduate Lindsey McKim had nine kills, Myriah Dombrowsky had nine assists and Union High graduate Carmen LaFond had 17 digs as the Penguins won big in the first game then rallied in each of the next two for the victory.

Clark (13-16, 7-4 NWAACC) closes out the regular season Wednesday at Green River Community College in Auburn.

The tournament is Nov. 17-20 at Mount Hood Community College in Gresham, Ore.
