

Clark College to host a Health Careers Job Fair

Clark College will host a Health Careers Job Fair on Wednesday, June 1 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Clark's Gaiser Student Center. The event is free and open to students and members of the community. No registration is required.

"They [visitors] will be able to meet with industry professionals in a relaxed atmosphere, asking questions about current jobs as well as future openings," Clark College Career Services Director Edie Blakley said. "We are encouraging guests to bring resumes and dress for success since they'll be meeting with potential employers."

Companies currently scheduled to attend include Carolee's at Ridgefield, Cascade Park Care Center, Community Home Health and Hospice, Dental Medical Staffing Inc., Fort Vancouver Convalescent Center, Free Clinic of Southwest Washington, Kool Smiles, Lifeline Connections, MHA/Net-Rx, Northwest Natural Products, Prestige Care Inc., Southwest Medical Group, Synergy and Vancouver Radiologists PC.

For information call 360-992-2902.