

Johnson, Scott claim top awards at Miss Clark County pageant

Winners will represent area at Miss Washington, receive scholarships

The Columbian

Sadie Johnson, a 21-year-old Clark College student from Vancouver, was named Miss Clark County 2012 Saturday night in a program at Evergreen High School.

Brianna Scott, a 16-year-old Camas High School junior, was named Miss Clark County's Outstanding Teen 2012.

Johnson, whose platform was raising awareness of eating disorders, won a $2,000 scholarship and the chance to compete in the Miss Washington pageant in July. Her talent was dance, and she hopes to obtain a bachelor's degree in education. She is a graduate of Columbia River High School and the daughter of Julie Johnson and Randy and Delta Johnson.

Scott, whose platform was youth mentoring, won a $500 scholarship and the chance to compete in the Miss Washington Outstanding Teen pageant in May. Her talent was vocal, and she hopes to obtain a medical degree and become a surgeon. She is the daughter of Lisa Scott.

The other Miss Clark County contestants were:

■ Alyssa Pilot, 22, a Clark College student and Woodland High School gradu-

Sadie Johnson
Miss Clark County
2012

Brianna Scott
Miss Clark County's
Outstanding Teen
2012

Portland graduate. Platform: Life without limits.

■ Anna Buchholz, 17, a Mountain View High School student. Platform: Helping the homeless one family at a time.

■ Sarah Custer, 19, a Clark College student. Platform: It's about the community that takes up the fight. Platform: Empowering disabled adults.

■ Jenny Lubanovici, 22, a Northwestern University student and Mountain View High School graduate. Platform: Youth mentoring.

■ Angelica Olson, 23, a Washington State University Vancouver student and St. Mary's Academy of Portland graduate. Platform: Life without limits.

■ Amethyst Ackerman, 13, a home school student. Platform: Making a difference in the fight against cancer.

■ Jenny Reynolds, 16, a La Center High School student. Platform: Youth mentoring.

■ Jordan Gaylor, 17, a Skyview High School Student. Platform: Youth involvement and mentoring.

■ Kennedy Brinkley, 13, an Akli Middle School student. Platform: Promoting youth fitness.

■ Korrina Asmus-Sivongxay, 16, a Hudson's Bay High School Student. Platform: Step out to stop diabetes.

■ Lydia Brown, 13, a La Center Middle School student. Platform: Children's Miracle Network.

■ MaKayla Wilson, 15, a Battle Ground

High School student. Platform: Going green — the three Rs.

■ Taylor Betterton, 16, a Skyview High School student. Platform: Ending generational dysfunction.

The first runner up for Miss Clark County 2012 was Sarah Custer, who received a $750 scholarship; the second runner up was Anna Buchholz, $300 scholarship; and the third runner up was Jenny Lubanovici, $150 scholarship.

The first runner-up for Miss Clark County's Outstanding Teen 2012 was Jenny Reynolds, who received a $300 scholarship; the second runner up was Korrina Asmus-Sivongxay, $200 scholarship; and the third runner up was Taylor Betterton, $100 scholarship.

Miss Clark County is an official preliminary to the Miss Washington and Miss America programs.