

Clark College hosting all-star soccer event in Camas

The Columbian

Doc Harris Stadium in Camas will be the host for the NWAACC All-Star Soccer competition on Saturday.

Clark College is the host for this event, scheduled to begin at noon with a women's match. A men's match will follow at approximately 2 p.m.

Representing the Clark women will be sophomore Christina Lopas, a Fort Vancouver grad, and freshman Julie Schmitz, a Ridgefield grad.

The All-Star event will also include the announcement of the NWAACC Coach of the Year and Player of the Year.

Admission to the game is $6, $3 for children ages 6-12, seniors and members of military families.

Doc Harris Stadium is located at N.E. 22nd Avenue and N.E. Ione Street in Camas.