

The latest exhibit at Clark College's Archer Gallery spotlights works by Peter Happel Christian and Dan Gilsdorf.

Christian examines relationships with the natural world while exploring mediation and representation. His video installation features iconic war films from different cinematic eras. Gilsdorf will showcase a drawing project that records the expansion and reach of the artist in a series of fixed points. The exhibit is on display through Dec. 4 in the gallery, which is in Clark College's Penguin Union Building, 1933 Fort Vancouver Way, Vancouver. The Archer Gallery is open 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesdays through Thursdays, and noon to 5 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays. Call 360-992-2246 or visit clark.edu/archergallery.
