

Vancouver couple establishes arts foundation

Vancouver couple George and Joan Peekema gave a $100,000 endowment to establish the Joan Peekema Scholarship for the Arts, which will provide full-tuition awards for Clark College students.

An artist herself, Joan Peekema's work can be found on the college's campus. Her steel sculpture "Gentle Commitment" is located near Bauer Hall.

The couple also donated $10,000 to Clark's mature learning program.
