

Battle Ground grad wins 3-point shootout at Clark College tourney

Jeremy Rohrer won the 3-point shootout at the ninth annual Clark College-U.S. Army Men's Basketball Holiday Tournament, held Dec. 27-29 at the school's O'Connell Sports Center.

Rohrer, a 2008 graduate of Battle Ground High School, is the Tigers' career leader in 3-point field goal shooting. He currently plays for Centralia Community College.

Rohrer made 19 of his 30 attempts in the contest, which was held on Dec. 28, the second day of the tournament, which featured community college teams from Chemeketa, Portland, Seattle, South Puget Sound, Treasure Valley and Wenatchee Valley in addition to Centralia and the host team from Clark College.

South Puget Sound won the tournament title, defeating Clark 73-70 in the championship game played Dec. 29.
