

Clark theater offers comedy

Blithe Spirit, a comedy by Noel Coward, will be performed Fri.-Sat., May 8-9, 15-16 and 22-23, 7:30 p.m., at Decker Theater, Clark College, 1933 Fort Vancouver Way, Vancouver.

A matinee performance is slated for Sat., May 16, 2 p.m.

The play concerns socialite and novelist Charles Condomine who is haunted by the ghost of his first wife, Elvira, following a seance held by the eccentric medium and clairvoyant, Madame Arcati. Elvira makes continuous attempts to disrupt Charles' marriage to his second wife, Ruth.

Tickets are $10 each, available by phone beginning April 27, 992-2815. Before April 27, tickets may be purchased in person at the Clark College bookstore.
