

Clark choir, band to perform

The Clark College concert choir, under the direction of April Duvic, and the school's concert band, directed by Rich Inouye, will offer a winter concert Fri., March 12, 7:30 p.m., at the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, 3101 Main St., Vancouver.

The program will feature music of Spain, Cuba, and Latin and South America.

The choir will sing music based on Spanish language composers Michael Mendoza, Alberto Favero, Randall Stroope and Sid Robinovitch, as well as pieces from the Krao tribe in Brazil. Students from the college's Spanish class will discuss the poets and poetry.

The ban will feature selections from Spain and Mexico, including music by Clifton Williams, Genaro Codina and William Rhoads.

The concert is free and open to the public. Information is available by calling Peggy Winston, 992-2245.
