

Choral groups to perform

The Clark College Women's Choral Ensemble, under the direction of April Duvic, and the Clark College Chorale, directed jointly by Janet Reiter and April Duvic, will present a spring concert Thurs., June 10, 7:30 p.m., at First United Methodist Church, 401 E 33rd St., Vancouver.

Theme of the concert will be "An American Portrait." The program will include American spirituals such as Ave Maria, Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit, and Down to the River to Pray.

Also on the program will be a musical review of the United States with songs such as Chester by Revolutionary War era composer William Billings, and Wheels of a Dream from "Ragtime."

The concert is free and open to the public. Information is available by calling Peggy Winston, 992-2662.
