

Clark sets choir, band concert

The Clark College concert choir, under the direction of April Duvic, and concert band, directed by Richard Inouye, will present a spring concert Wed., June 10, 7:30 p.m., at the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, 3101 Main St., Vancouver.

The choir will sing American spirituals and hymn tunes, while the women of the choir will be featured in an arrangement of Psalm 23 with concert band members Amanda Bunton on flute and Rachael Campbell on oboe.

The choir will conclude its portion of the program with Bridge Over Troubled Waters.

The concert band will perform traditional and contemporary compositions depicting the Columbia River and the Alaskan seas.

The concert will end with the choir and band collaborating in a tribute to military veterans.

The concert is free and open to the public. Information is available by calling Peggy Winston, 992-2662.
