

Around the area

VANCOUVER

Clark College offers tour of Great White Way

Clark College is offering a Theatre Tour of New York City from May 12-18 through its corporate and continuing education division.

The trip includes a stay in a boutique hotel near Times Square and three Broadway shows: "Billy Elliott," "9 to 5," "West Side Story."

There will be a backstage tour and plenty of other sight-seeing.

People interested should attend an informational session from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Friday in the Clark College T-Building. Use the Yellow parking lot, opposite (west of) the Penguin Union Building at 1933 Fort Vancouver Way.

Call 360-992-2163 for more information.

VANCOUVER

Bob Knight gives college overview Thursday

Clark College President Bob Knight will lay out the challenges and opportunities for the college Thursday during his annual State of the College address.

The free public event starts at 11 a.m. in the Gaiser Student Center on the main campus, 1933 Fort Vancouver Way.

Doors open at 10:30 a.m.; seating is first-come, first-served. Parking maps and directions are available at: www.clark.edu/maps.

New this year, Clark will accept nonperishable food donations to be given to Share Vancouver, which provides shelter, food and emergency services for homeless persons.

Clark's student ambassadors will collect donations at the morning event, and they also will be accepted at the Welcome Center, downstairs in the Penguin Union Building, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday.