

Clark baseball team splits

The Columbian

The Clark College club baseball team split a doubleheader Sunday with the Concordia JV.

The Penguins won the opener 7-6, and lost the nightcap 5-4.

Eric Weir picked up the win in the nine-inning opener. He went seven innings with four strikeouts. John Kiggins earned the save by getting the final two outs.

Clark's five-run fourth inning held up as Concordia rallied with four in the seventh and one in the ninth.

Matt Cossman was 2 for 4 with two RBI for Clark.

Clark tried to rally in the second game after giving up two to Concordia in the seventh. After scoring once, the Penguins stranded two runners. They also stranded runners at second and third base in the sixth inning.

Clark's next game is at noon Saturday at home against George Fox.
