

Clark College to play host to ninth annual Holiday Basketball Tournament

Ken Vance
staff reporter

The ninth annual Clark College-U.S. Army Men's Basketball Holiday Tournament will be held Sat.-Mon., Dec. 27-29, at the Clark College O'Connell Sports Center.

Clark will play seven other community college teams in the tournament, which features Centralia, Chemeketa, Portland, Seattle, South Puget Sound, Treasure Valley and Wenatchee Valley.

Jeremy Rohrer, a 2008 graduate of Battle Ground High School, is a member of the Centralia team.

The first round of games will be played on Sat., Dec. 27, at 2, 4 and 8 p.m. On Sun., Dec. 28, games will be played at 2, 6 and 8 p.m. The finals will be played on Mon., Dec. 29, at noon, 2 and 4 p.m.

Slam dunk and 3-point shooting contests will be held Sun., Dec. 28, 4-6 p.m. The BlazerDancers will make a special appearance on Dec. 29 from 3:30-5:30 p.m.

Tickets are available at the door. Daily ticket prices are $5 for adults and $3 for members of the military, seniors and students. Children under age six are free. Clark College students are also admitted free of charge and on Dec. 27, members of regional boys and girls high school basketball teams will be admitted free of charge with the ASB cards.