

Clark men upend first-place Lower Columbia

The Columbian

Five players scored in double figures Wednesday, leading the Clark College men's basketball team to an 82-61 victory at Lower Columbia.

The Penguins (15-12, 8-7 NWAACC) handed the Red Devils (21-6, 14-1) their first conference loss with one game remaining in the regular season.

Clark, which led by 16 points at halftime, forced 28 turnovers and recorded 15 steals, led by Bryan Martin with five.

Clark College

Orlandor Westbrook led Clark with 17 points.

The Penguins are third in the standings and will host Green River on Saturday at O'Connell Court. A win guarantees the Penguins a spot in the NWAACC tournament next week in Kennewick.

Women

Lower Columbia 83, Clark 55

— The Penguins didn't have an answer for the host team's barrage of 3-pointers, as seven Red Devils combined to make 11 shots from behind the arc.

Clark (7-15, 5-10) was plagued with turnovers, committing 33 on the night, and Lower Columbia (20-6, 13-2) turned the miscues into 30 points. Mandy Wall led the Penguins with 17 points.