

Clark men win at Fresno hoop event

The Clark College men's basketball team had five players score in double figures as the Penguins earned their first win of the season with a 86-76 win over Hancock College of Santa Maria, Calif., Saturday in the Fresno City Tip-Off Classic.

Clark (1-1) was led by Lucas Swanson's 18 points. Arman Kalan had 14 points, while Rashad Rollins and Durham Rosser added 13 point and Austin Bragg has 12.

Clark scored the first eight points after the intermission to open a 24-point lead.

Clark opened the tournament Friday with a 64-58 loss to College of the Sequoias from Visalia, Calif. Swanson had 19 points on Friday.

The Penguins conclude play in the tournament at 10 a.m. today against City College of San Francisco, the top-ranked JC team in California.