

The Clark College Orchestra continues its season, which features music from Europe, with a concert spotlighting songs by French composers. The orchestra will perform Hector Berlioz's "Overture to Les Franc Juges," Maurice Ravel's "Mother Goose Suite" and Paul Dukas' "The Sorcerer's Apprentice." The orchestra will also present the world premiere of Vancouver composer Matt Doran's "Symphony No. 5 for Orchestra." The concert is at 7:30 p.m. March 11 at Vancouver School of Arts and Academics' Royal Durst Theatre, 3101 Main St., Vancouver. No admission fee, but donations to the Orchestra General Fund will be accepted. Call 360-992-2662 or visit clark.edu.
