PASCO — Clark College topped Prairie Baseball Academy of Calgary 6-3 Saturday in college baseball action.

The Penguins fell 4-3 to Columbia Basin in their second game, dropping their record to 3-7.

Clark, fielding a varsity baseball team for the first time since 1992, plays two more games today. The Penguins will face Blue Mountain this morning and Walla Walla in the afternoon.

Taylor Dunn pitched seven innings to get the win against Prairie, while Tyler Nielson earned a save. Evan Pickett hit a two-run homer for Clark, and Cory Henning had two hits.

Nick Woods hit a double and drove in a run against Columbia Basin. Pickett also had an RBI, going 1-for-5 against Columbia Basin.

Clark will make its home debut Saturday with a double-header against Everett, beginning at 1 p.m.
