

VANCOUVER

SCORE moves offices next to Clark College facility

SCORE Vancouver has relocated its offices to space next to Clark College's Corporate Education Department in Building T west of Fort Vancouver Way between McLoughlin and Fourth Plain boulevards.

The volunteer group has about 30 active counselors who provide one-on-one services during the week to individuals interested in starting a business or those already in business.

For more information visit www.scorevancouver.org.