

Clark volleyball wins 2 of 3

The Clark College volleyball team went 2-1 in pool play as it hosts a Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges crossover tournament.

The Penguins defeated Linn-Benton 27-25, 18-25, 21-19 in their first match at the eight-team tournament. They later defeated Everett in two games and lost to Walla Walla in three.

Elimination matches begin at 9:30 a.m. today at the O'Connell Center, with play continuing until 5 p.m. All proceeds collected at the gate will be donated to promote breast cancer awareness.
