

Clark history book available

Voice and Dreams: Celebrating Clark College's Diamond Anniversary, a book commemorating the 75th anniversary of Clark College, is offered for sale at the Clark College bookstore for $15.

Produced by the college's department of Communications and Marketing, the book includes photos and text, taking readers through each decade at Clark College through the eyes of alumni, faculty, staff, administrators and supporters.

The 79-page, paperback book includes an interview with Ellis F. Dunn, a former interim president of Clark College who now operates the Pioneer Street Cafe in Ridgefield. Dunn served the college as a faculty member, dean and vice president, as well as interim president. Dunn served Clark College from 1959 until retirement in 1989. "I always thought of education as a public service," said Dunn.

Alumni interviewed for the book were former state senator Al Bauer, Tony Bacon, editor of the Daily Insider, Jeanne Harris, and member of the Vancouver city council. Also interviewed were former faculty member Dr. Antonio Scarpelli, and sports legend Claude "Skeet" O'Connell.

O'Connell coached sports at Clark College for 31 years from 1946 until 1977. He also headed the athletic department at the school. He coached baseball and basketball for many of his years at Clark. He also coached golf from 1975 until his "second retirement" in 1987.

The Clark College bookstore is located in Gaiser Hall.

Proceeds from the sale of the book will benefit the Clark College alumni association scholarship fund. More information is available by calling 992-2149.