Edmonds won the deciding game 15-12 on Monday and defeated Clark 3-2 in a Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges volleyball match at the O'Connell Center.

Clark won the first game and the fourth game; Edmonds took games two, three and five.

Tracie Garrison had 15 kills and five stuff blocks for Clark, which is 2-3 on the season counting tournament play.

Alyssa Hernandez had 36 assists, and Alivia Fields 19 digs.

The Penguins host three more matches this week.

Clackamas visits Clark at 7 p.m. today, Umpqua visits at 2 p.m. Wednesday, and Blue Mountain at 3 p.m. Thursday.
