

DANIEL LEE

Foundation director earns executive certification

Daniel Lee has been designated as a Certified Fund Raising Executive by Alexandria, Va.-based CFRE International. He is the Clark College

Foundation's director of major and planned gifts and was a financial adviser for New York City-based American Express Financial Services for 10 years. Lee graduated from University College London.