

VANCOUVER

Clark College flagpole dedication set Friday

Just in time for Veterans Day, Clark College will dedicate its new main flagpole on Friday with a patriotic flourish.

Barring heavy rain, the 1 p.m. ceremony will celebrate the pole on the south side of the Penguin Union Building, near Fort Vancouver Way. The flagstaff replaces one outside the Baird Administration Building as Clark's primary flagpole.

Scheduled speakers include Clark President Bob Knight, student body President Pat Mehigan, Vancouver Mayor Royce Pollard and Jenny Grimani, president of Clark's student veterans club.

The flag will be raised by Vancouver VFW Post 7824 Color Guard members. Clark music professor Rich Inouye, retired from the U.S. Air Force Academy Band, will lead the playing of the national anthem.

Clark is at 1933 Fort Vancouver Way.