

Central Park: Clark College automotive technology professor Mike Godson was the highest scorer among nearly 15,000 people on the national L1 (advanced engine performance) exam. In recognition of

Mike Godson

Godson was awarded the L1 Master Technician of the Year award by Automotive Service Excellence and Motor Age Training during the ASE board meeting, held Nov. 18-19 in New Orleans. This is the second honor Godson received in recognition of his performance on the exam. In July, he was named Educator of the Year during the 2009 North American Council of Automotive Teachers conference for excelling on all ASE automotive tests (A1-A8) and the L1 exam.