

Job fair slated in Vancouver

Clark College and other sponsors will organize the 22nd annual Pathways to Your Future job fair Thurs., April 23, 11 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Hilton Hotel, 301 W 6th St., Vancouver.

The fair allows job seekers to explore a range of professional and technical career opportunities.

Workshops are scheduled for noon, 1:15 p.m. and 2:30 p.m., and are intended to help job seekers polish interview techniques and target their resumes.

A new feature this year will be a round table discussion on industry trends 1-3 p.m. in an area adjacent to the exhibitor hallway.

Information will also be available on finishing a college degree, acquiring additional job skill course work, and getting funding for education.

Other sponsors are Washington State University Vancouver and the Vancouver Columbian newspaper.

The job fair is free and open to the public. More information is available by calling Brian Scott at Clark College, 992-2526.
