

Run/walk to benefit Clark College scholarships

The annual Kalani Rodrigues Memorial Scholarship run/walk will take place Sun., Sept. 27, at Clark College in Vancouver, with proceeds benefiting athletic scholarships.

The 10K run will get underway at 8 a.m., starting at Clark College Christensen Soccer Field, located on the west side of Fort Vancouver Way north of McLoughlin Blvd. The run is an open-course, timed event. Runners, including Clark College president Bob Knight, will pass through downtown Vancouver, along the Columbia River, and through the Fort Vancouver National Historic Site, concluding at the College Chime Tower./

The 5K walk will start at 8:30 a.m. and will take walkers across the Clark College main campus.

Both events will be followed by a luau hosted by the Clark College Penguin Athletic Club.

The walk/run has been held since Clark College track athlete and alumnus Kalani Rodrigues died of brain cancer in 2004 at age 21. Proceeds and donations from the event have generated more than $60,000 in athletic scholarship funds.

Entry fee is $27 which includes the luau. A t-shirt is $5.

Registration forms are available at www.clarkcollegefoundation.org/77.php

More information is available by calling 992-2301.