

Laurie Brown

■ Clark College announces that Laurie Brown, Clark College's nursing professor, will lead an important discussion on the breast cancer and ovarian cancer gene and how to tell if you're at risk. The discussion will be the focus of Clark's next Faculty Speaker Series event. It will take place on Friday, March 6 from noon – 1 p.m in Gaiser Student Center. The event is free and open to the public. Brown is a tenured nursing professor at Clark. A graduate of Washington State University, Vancouver, she earned a Master of Nursing Science with a specialization in community nursing and nursing education. She also has a dual master's degree in public administration and health administration from Portland State University.