

Clark College honors supporters

Clark College honored its large supporters at its annual Savoring Excellence banquet May 29.

The L.M. Hidden Charitable Trust received the 2008 Presidential Award of Excellence. The trust is managed by the family of Monte and Naomi Hidden, and has provided scholarships to more than 100 students in 14 years.

Portland-based Legacy Health System was honored for its role in developing a medical radiography program at the college in 2005.
