

Clark theater offers drama

A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams will be performed Fri.-Sat., May 2-3, 9-10, and 16-17, 7:30 p.m., at Decker Theater, Clark College, Vancouver.

A matinee performance is set for Sat., May 10, 2 p.m.

The Pulitzer Prize winning play hit theaters in 1946, depicting the psychology of working class characters.

The production is directed by Lisa Abbott.

The play tells the story of the mental and emotional demise of a determined yet fragile and delicate Southern lady born to a once-wealthy family of Mississippi planters, and her impoverished, tragic downfall in the squalid, cramped and tawdry French Quarter one-bedroom apartment of her married sister.

The play is recommended for ages 13 and above.

Tickets are $10, available by mail and phone by calling 992-2815.
