

SNAPSHOTS

CLARK COUNTY PEOPLE AND BUSINESSES ON THE MOVE

Written by Barbara Samuels
Columbian news assistant

Jerry Boehm (pictured) has been appointed vice president and manager of First Independent Bank's new community banking department and Mark Brandon, executive vice president, has been named chief credit officer.

Scott Staples has joined Schauerermann, Thayer & Jacobs, a Vancouver law firm, as an associate attorney. His practice will focus on personal injury and insurance cases.

Riverview Community Bank has named Tony Ton vice president and commercial loan officer and Diana Fitzpatrick vice president and cash management officer.

Ken Covert, has joined the Forgey Sports Medicine & Rehab Clinic. His practice will focus on treatment of spinal and sports injuries, car accidents, worker compensation, TMJ, headaches and scoliosis.

William Van Dusen Jr., an educator and attorney, has been appointed director of advising & counseling at Clark College.

The Clark College Foundation welcomes three new fundraising professionals to enhance the foundation's efforts on behalf of the college. They are Susie Kasper (pictured), director of annual giving; Daniel Lee, director of major and planned gifts; and Chris Mildner, director of prospect research.

Bank of Clark County has named Sharon Lien, vice president and business relationship officer.

Christie Rust has been promoted to director of sales and marketing for the Hilton Vancouver Washington. Rust, a certified meeting planner, will lead a team of five sales managers and has been part of the Hilton chain for 12 years.

Educational Opportunities for Children and Families has promoted Darcy Altizer to Community Partnership and Resource Development Manager. Her responsibilities will include communications, development and marketing.

Laura Smith has been promoted to president and CEO of the Washington

Dental Service Foundation. She has been deputy director since 2001 and holds a master's degree in public affairs from the University of Washington.

Nanette Walker, owner of NWCPA, has expanded and relocated her certified public accounting firm to 2 S. 56th Place in Ridgefield. Chelsea Grenz has been appointed administrative assistant. The company provides financial statement preparation and tax services to mid-sized businesses and high net-worth individuals.

The newly formed community banking department at First Independent Bank welcomes Tim Cross as branch support manager and assistant vice president, Jack Alvord, vice president and James Gaspar, vice president.

Laura Eagon, CPA, has joined the Vancouver accounting firm of Schiller & Co. as a staff accountant. Eagon earned her bachelor of arts in business administration from Washington State University.