

Clark choir, band, orchestra to perform

Clark College musical groups will present concerts March 12 and 14, both 7:30 p.m., and both at the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, 3101 Main St., Vancouver.

The Clark College orchestra, under the direction of Donald Appert, will perform "A Tour of London" concert on Wed., March 12.

The program will include the U.S. premier of Antonio Rosetti's Clarinet Concert in E, performed by Julius Klein, artistic director of the Slovak State Symphony.

Also on the program will be music by Rossini and Ralph Vaughn Williams.

Klein majored in clarinet at the Conservatory in Kosice. He also studied at the Academy of Musical Arts in Bratislava. He is presently solo clarinetist and executive director of the Slovak State Philharmonic in Kosice. He has performed in several countries.

The Clark College concert choir, under the direction of April Duvic, and concert band, directed by Rich Inouye, will join for a concert Fri., March 14.

The "Around the World in 80

JULIUS KLEIN

Minutes" concert will include music from France, Israel, Russia, Africa, Australia, Korea, Spain and Italy.

Both concerts are free and open to the public. Information is available by calling 992-2662, 992-2195, or 992-2245.