

Clark women's hoops get local commitments

Five Clark County players are among six who will join the Clark College women's basketball team next season, Penguins head coach Nancy Boone said.

Kass Cloyd from Columbia River, Macy Mukensnabl from Skyview, and Janae Davis from Union have signed letters of intent to play for Clark.

Bre Sorenson from Union and Alexis Gleason from Hudson's Bay are also expected to commit to the Penguins, Boone said.

Boone also said Debbie Simmers from Anchorage Christian has committed.

"I'm real pleased" to have five Clark County players joining the program, Boone said.

"I was looking for athleticism and high basketball IQs, and this group has those things," Boone said.
